

Coba IT-8500VG

- The classic power supply from Inter-Tech

Inter-Tech started its power supply business during the mid 90's with the brand CobaPower. Soon, customers have realised that with this brand devices with high quality standards and low prices have entered the market.

And nowadays, thanks to constant advancements and adjustments to the demands of the market, we can proudly present the Coba IT-8500VG. This power supply fulfils all standards of our time. Whether it is the change-over to active PFC, EPS 8pin/PCI-Express connectors or new legal requirements, the Coba IT-8500VG has kept up with the time.

The smooth running of this device and the high durability are the corner pillars of the Coba IT-8500VG power supplies and two of the main reasons for their lasting success.
